Process for Applying for Registration

(for service / training / visiting experts)

Meet requirements for medical registration → Have an offer of employment or training from an approved healthcare institution or expertise as visiting expert certified → Submit online application for temporary registration with supporting documents →

SMC verifies doctor's medical credentials and medical registration → Review of application → Outcome of Application